Carol hastily adopted her new family Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and LaNesse. The second week in August, Carol went with LaNesse and the Exchange Avenue Baptist Church Choir to California on a two week choir tour.

After returning from California, Carol quickly became acquainted with the "General" way of life, beginning with the Ice Cream Social in August and the start of the 1971-72 school year. Carol rapidly grew accustomed to time blocks, pep assemblies, football games and new faces.

Carol's favorite place in the U.S.A. is Grant. She's a true General—"From Italy to America, Our Best Friend!"

Mr. and Miss Howdy highlight September activities

The beginning of September meant the beginning of a new school year. To start it off right, what better way to get acquainted with new classmates than Howdy Week? The highlight of this week was the announcement of Mr. and Miss Howdy, Johnny Chambers and Margaret Newcomb.

September also marked the beginning of a new experience for many students—the Pakistan Relief fast. Students were asked to donate their lunch money for a day to this fund to provide food for needy families in Pakistan.

Football season was opened with a General victory over the Del City Eagles. Football spirit and other activities in September brought sophomores, juniors, and seniors together as Generals.

October heralded the production of "Take Her, She's Mine." This musical comedy was about a girl leaving home for college, and it required many hours of hard work and play rehearsals.

To provide high school students with a better understanding of the rapid increase of Venereal Disease, assemblies were held in late October. In two separate assemblies, one for boys and one for girls, students were enlightened on the symptoms, causes, and cures of VD.

Class competition to see which class could display the most spirit by decorating the halls with posters for the upcoming Midwest City game gave real enthusiasm to players, coaches, and students alike.

Football favorites are honored at homecoming

Homecoming 1972 was alive with changes. It was a beautiful night, the usual rain had quit during the morning; the class-sponsored car floats gave the fans something besides pretty girls to look at; and the Football Queen wore hot-pants.

As the band played "Tara's Theme" the candidates walked across the field from the North side of South Oklahoma City Stadium, another new innovation for Homecoming '72. The sophomore attendant was Janis Francis; Lisa Ridgeway and Belinda High were the two junior attendants; and the senior attendant was Belinda McDow. The 1972 football Queen, Alisa Hall, was crowned by fullback Kenny Flaniken and Football Homecoming was over for another year.

With the culmination of Grant's football season, November celebrated the crowning of football queen Alisa Hall at the Northeast game. A special highlight of homecoming was at the end of the game when seniors gathered on the football field to sing the Alma Mater.

Another special attraction at the end of football season was the mini-float contest. Students built floats featuring titles such as "Hang 'Em High", "DOA", and "The War Wagon."

"All you can eat with the purchase of one ticket" can be heard from band members as they begin selling tickets to their annual Spaghetti Dinner. This is sponsored by band parents, proceeds go toward buying new uniforms.

Working toward better student involvement, the Grant Student Council began its active year with Howdy Week. Its highlight was the crowning of Mr. and Mrs. Howdy.

Under the direction of President Ricky Carpenter, Student Council's newest project was a Human Relation Council designed to discuss and analyze some of the problems created by the cluster plan.

One of the main achievements of the 1972 Student Council was the purchase of a pudding vending machine. Seven different flavors were available.

Sponsoring various annual activities such as hall decoration contests, United Appeal Drive, and mini-float contest, Student Council created pride and enthusiasm in our school.

Generated by our Student Council, fund-raising projects such as selling shares of stock in AFS helped sponsor the 1971-1972 AFS student, Carol Gusmeroli.

Dispatch changes size and paper

Many hours of hard work is the major component in meeting a newspaper deadline. Published bi-monthly, the Grant Dispatch gives each student an accurate account of school events. Not only does the Dispatch report current school news, sports, and activities, it also gives the student body the opportunity to voice their own opinions.

Headed by Editor-In-Chief Mark Wallis the Dispatch is printed by Leader Press Publishing Company and is available for fifteen cents.

Staff expands yearbook to collegiate size

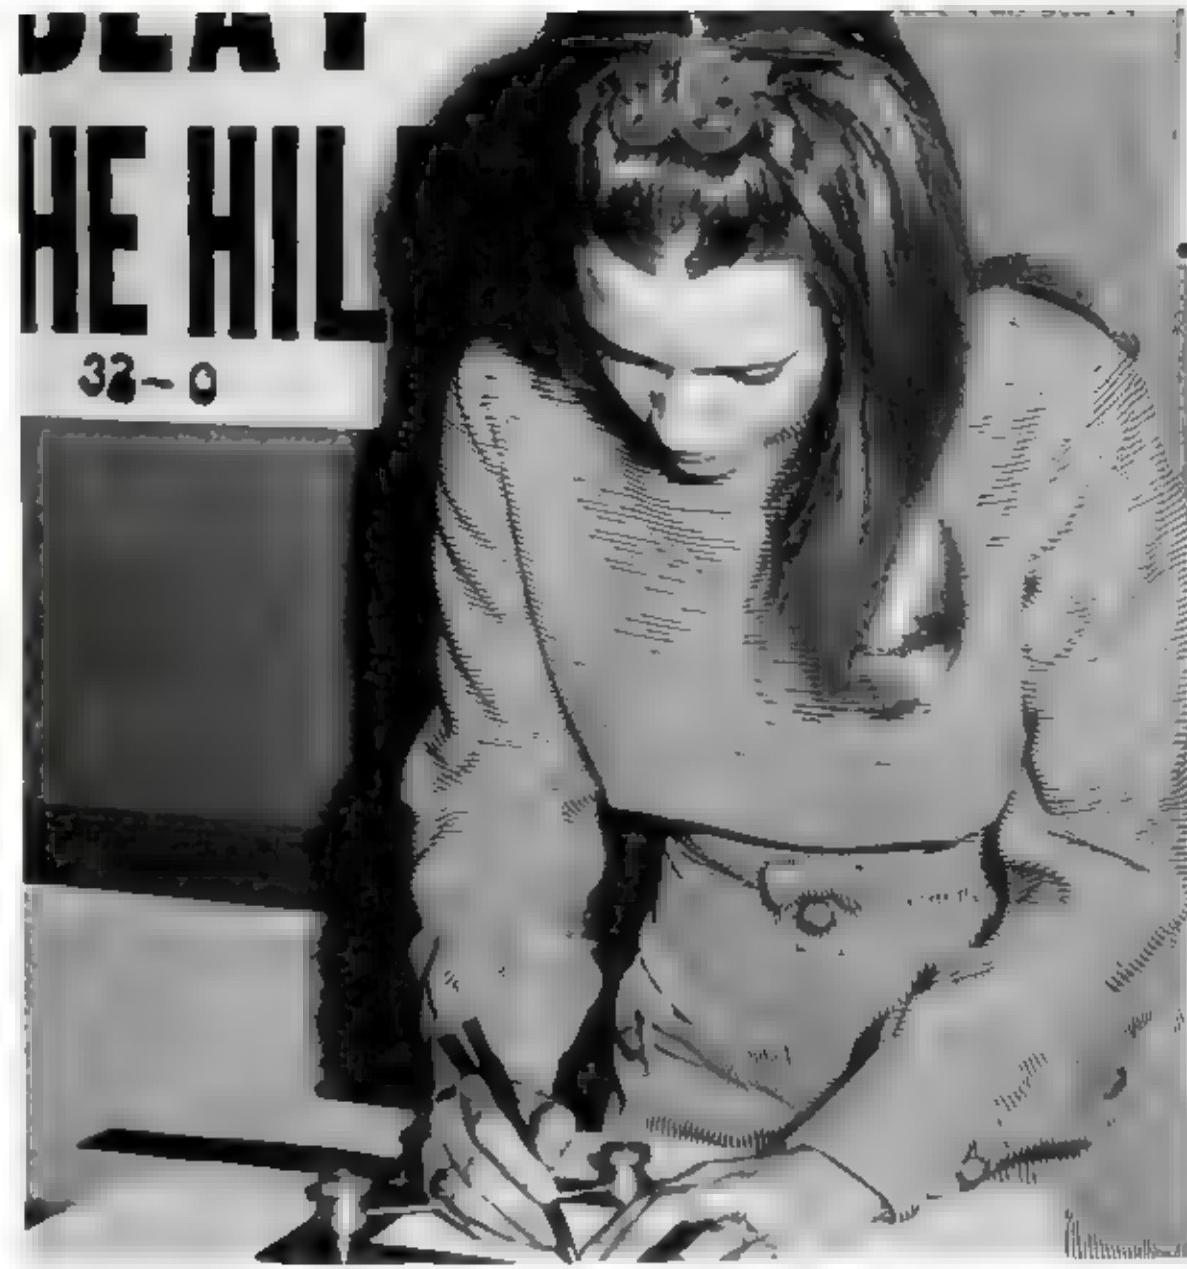

"John, call Joe!"

"Are the pictures we took last Tuesday back yet?"

"Deadline's been moved up two weeks? You're kidding!" Although it does sound like a madhouse in room 132 September through March, it's actually the yearbook staff producing the 1972 General.

Putting together a 288 page publication is no easy task, as the staff found out. By December, staying after school was a regular occurrence for section editors.

The 1972 General had a new look. It was changed from the standard high school size to collegiate size, and the arrangement of the book was done according to the time of year to fit the theme—Turn, turn.

Rockets testing weather conditions in the atmosphere, taking pictures from hundreds of feet from the ground and sending up rockets just for the sake of enjoyment were all a part of the Rocket Society's achievements.

Grant's Rocket Society was also interested in the national aspect of rocketing. Reading material about such things as data obtained from different rocket projects was read by the members.

Snow skiing during spring planned by FBLA

Grant's chapter of FBLA started money-raising activities early in the year. They sold stuffed animals and Christmas candles to help finance a ski trip to Vail, Colorado over the Spring break. After a lot of planning and hard work, they left on March 17 at 8:00 A.M. and reached their objective the next evening. They started home on Wednesday, after three days of snow and cold.

Another project of FBLA was to register students to vote who were 18 or over. Registering was done in the mornings and during lunch.

Late in the school year, FBLA announced their King and Queen.

Future teachers tutor at nursery

Becoming better acquainted with what being a teacher really means is what the FTA is doing. Members help children in nurseries by tutoring them and by just being around them.

Teaching wasn't the only thing the FTA did during the school year. In November, they held a hay rack ride at Draper Lake, and during Christmas they gave a fruit basket to a nursing home, and went Christmas caroling. At the Fall Convention for FTA the Grant Chapter was in charge of the entertainment.

The Generals' Band takes a superior at district contest

The Sound of Young America, Chicago and Fight On were a big part of "The Generals' Band" during the football season. But that wasn't all, the new class scheduling of the band cut out some of their practice time, so they had to make it up, starting at 7:00 every morning.

The band circle-drill gave a new look to the audiences at halftime. And in Norman, Oklahoma, they marched away with a superior rating. Now, if only they could do something about those uniforms. That's what it all came down to this year, new uniforms for '73.

One of the big money-raising projects for the new uniforms was the selling of citrus fruit just before Christmas. Over 1800 boxes of oranges and grapefruits were sold.

Orchestra plays for musical “My Fair Lady”

Although the Grant orchestra only numbered in the twenties, it was big on performances, including two nights of the musical "My Fair Lady."

Also, along with the Grant Concert Band they attended the Central State Contest in Edmond, District Contest at Oklahoma City University, and State Contest at the University of Oklahoma held in Norman.

Choir performs at Shepard Mall for Christmas

"Busy" was the key word for the choir department. In November, they attended the National Association of Teachers of Singing in Waco, Texas. Three Grant students sang their way to honors of second, third, and fourth place. Just before the Thanksgiving break, the USG choir "traded" programs with Southeast. December brought an invitation to sing at Shepard Mall for Christmas, and they also performed an Open Doors' assembly. Spring brought not only showers, but contest time. In March, there was District at Southeast and Edmond Contest; State Contest was at OSU in April as was the Pawnee Contest.

Sabre singers make debut

Making their debut as a part of U.S. Grant's choir department during 1972 were the Sabre Singers. Approximately thirty make up the group, and from all this talent the individual groups such as the quartets, sextet, and trio were chosen. The "new" Sabre Singers sang more of a popular style of music than did the A Cappella, Girls' Glee and Boys' Glee Clubs.

Another new innovation for the choir was the election of Senior attendants to their King and Queen, and a junior and sophomore girl attendant.

NFL sponsors Heart of Oklahoma speech tourney

Anyone who walked past Mr. Long's room on some Friday morning might have thought that someone was going to move into the school, there were so many suitcases, bundles and carrying cases. But it was just members of NFL off to another speech tournament. They started the year in Talequah, went on to Northwest State and OSU in November, Northwest Classen in December, and Pryor in January. To raise money for all of these tournaments they sold candy.

On January 14 and 15, Grant's chapter of NFL sponsored the first Heart of Oklahoma Speech Tournament. It was the biggest speech tournament in the state, and more than forty schools competed.

During the summer months, a special Summer Troupe performed "Have a Grumpish Holiday" for various audiences, and at the beginning of September, Thespian members got together for an Ice Cream party and initiation. The Clown Troupe made their first appearance in October. Approximately twenty students volunteered for such things as children's birthday parties and Open Door's assemblies.

Thespians worked on the play "Take Her, She's Mine" in November, held a Christmas party and initiation in December, and presented a one-act play at Regionals in January called "The Frogs." In May, they presented the Children's Theatre.

Building a set for a play or assembly takes the planning and creativeness of the stage craft class. Students learn dozens of facets that go into the making of an interesting stage.

Proper lighting is studied for spot-lighting Eliza Doolittle in "My Fair Lady", a stage containing two sets was conceived for "Take Her, She's Mine" and a Winter Wonderland theme complete with a twinkling city background was designed for the Journalism assembly.

Electing officers was the first thing on the agenda of the Spanish Club. After the elections, they promptly held a get-together at Casa Bonitas to celebrate the occasion.

Just before Christmas break, the Spanish Club held a Spanish Fiesta. A pinata filled with candy was broken, and a lot of doritos were eaten. They also sang Christmas songs in Spanish.

In April, a picnic was held to celebrate the end of the year, Dia de Campo.

Earlier in the year, the French Club officers held a party to initiate new members and generally have a good time.

Exchange student chosen as honorary spirit booster

Carol Gusmeroli, Grant's foreign exchange student, was chosen as an honorary spirit booster. The spirit boosters was a group of Sabrette members who made signs for the various sporting events and put them up in the halls. "Sink the Pirates", "Splatter the Spartans," and "Scalp the Redskins" were some of the ideas on the colorful signs.

Besides promoting spirit, the Pep Club was also in charge of the homecomings. A committee was chosen for each homecoming (football, basketball and wrestling) and the girls decorated the stadium or gym accordingly.

Sabrettes usher for rodeo finals

Ushering at the Fairground Arena and Civic Center Music Hall for big name groups and occasions was one of the many advantages of being a U.S. Grant Sabrette. Some of the events ushered were The Stars and Stripes July 4 Show, Tom Jones, Three Dog Night, Jackson 5, the Ice Capades, and the Finals Rodeo. Not only did the girls that ushered get a free show, they also earned extra merits.

Merits are an important aspect if a member wants to run for cheerleader, an office, or become a spirit booster. A certain number of merits are required for each of these posts.

The Human Relations Council was a newly formed club, sponsored by Mr. Barlow and Mrs. McLeod. The club met every Tuesday morning and its purpose was to promote better relations involving the cluster students.

Grant's chapter of Human Relations attended other meetings of Human Relations Councils at Midwest City, Classen and John Marshall High Schools.

During February there was Brotherhood week. Douglass invited several Councils to attend their meetings to provide different ethnic backgrounds.

DECA conference sponsored by Grant chapter

Who is even busier than Santa during the Christmas season? It seemed like Grant's DECA chapter was. Not only did they sponsor a city-wide Toys for Tots drive (with a little help from the United States Marine Corps) by placing boxes in various locations around the school and community, they also held a Party at Shakey's for which everyone attending had to present a toy. They also donated a box of food to a local church for Christmas.

In January, at the Grant vs. John Marshall basketball game, DECA announced their King and Queen. DECA's next important project was attending a Merchandising Mart held in March at Dallas.

National Merit honors two Grant students

Overflowing mailboxes was one of the defects of being a National Merit finalist discovered Vicci Ervin and Larry Irwinsky. It appeared that every college in the country was interested in having them attend their respective schools.

Larry and Vicci were only two out of the chosen 15,000 finalists, however 655,000 students took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Those 15,000 students constitute less than 1% of the graduating seniors in the United States.

Grant also had three other students that scored quite high. Karen Outland and Sam Garlow received Commended Students Awards, and Kurt Brewer was awarded one posthumously.

Six students represent Grant at conventions

At the annual Boys' and Girls' State Conventions held in June, six students represented Grant High School. Attending Boys' State, in Stillwater, were Victor Christian, Sam Garlow, John McDougal and Ricky Smith. In Ada, where Girls' State was held, Soozie McEuen and Sherrie Schmidt represented the school.

Each student that attended was chosen for their academic and leadership abilities. By attending these conventions, they were given the chance to exercise these abilities and learn more about how a government works. The students attended meetings, joined political parties, and ran for offices. When in office, they took over that office's duties.

Mu Alpha Theta holds initiation at Woodson Park

Mu Alpha Theta is the only club at Grant that has a grade average requirement. A member must be enrolled in Trigonometry or above, and have at least a B average, with no grade in Mathematics lower than B. But this doesn't mean the members always sit around and talk about sines, cosines, and the like. At their initiation, party for new members in October, eggs were pretty well "thrown around", and one member was standing on a corner counting blue cars with lady drivers turning left. In December, a Christmas party was held at Wiley Post Park.

Council promotes safety for school

Promoting safety in all aspects of school life was the purpose of the Safety Council. School zone driving, parking lot driving, fire exit drills, and simple street crossing was all a matter of school safety, not to mention the hassle of four-corners.

Once a month, Safety Council members had a chance to attend meetings with the Board of Education. These meetings were held to discuss new ideas for safety, and to get the opinions of the students on the programs.

Cross country team captures All-city meet

Behind the heels of Ricky Carpenter, the Cross Country team had a successful season, highlighted by winning first place in the All-City Tournament at Woodson Park.

Although the season started with the Generals placing thirteenth at the Tulsa Edison Invitational, they came back the next week and were declared All-City Champions.

The Generals captured second place in both the Mid-State Meet and Putnam City Invitational, with Carpenter placing second and first place respectively.

In both the Norman Invitational and State Cross Country Meets, Grant placed in the top ten. Rick Carpenter was selected to the All-State Cross Country team by virtue of having the fourth best time in the State Meet held in Tulsa.

In dual action, Grant defeated Southeast 18-37, and lost to Putnam City, 24-36 (low score wins).

A triangular meet in Edmond netted a victory for the Generals, as Carpenter captured first place, and John Bottoms placed second.

The record of a 6-5 season

Del City

An accurate passing game and substantial rushing attack headed by quarterback Greg Rolland and fullback Ken Flaniken, enabled the Generals to hold down the Del City Eagles 31-28. The triumph gave the Generals a promising show of what the season would be.

Ken Flaniken scored in the early going and again in the third period on runs totaling 41 yards, while end Pat Casey added 6 points on a 14-yard pass play in the second quarter. Quarterback Greg Rolland, who, through most of the night threw for 215 yards, scored on a one-yard plunge in the fourth stanza.

But, again the Eagles scored a touchdown, and time was running out for the Generals. Trailing 28-24 with a little more than a minute remaining, Grant got the ball on their own 44-yard line following the kickoff. Rolland passed for fifty yards in two plays to ends Randy Burns and Pat Casey to put the ball on the six yard line. Ken Flaniken tallied the deciding touchdown, his third of the night, when he surged over the goal line from the six. Gary Hanshue added the extra point for the final 31-28 victory.

Shawnee

While the hopes of a big upset were riding in the third quarter, the Shawnee Wolves were scoring quick touchdowns to establish a 36-28 victory over the shocked Generals.

Grant scored twice in the first half. Halfback Robby Woods tallied from the seven, and Greg Rolland tossed to end Pat Casey to put the Generals on top 14-0.

The next touchdowns for the Generals came in the second half on a 68-yard pass play with Greg Rolland connecting to Ken Flaniken, and a one-yard sneak by Rolland with 7:08 left in the fourth quarter. The successful point after attempt gave Grant their last lead of the game.

Putnam City

Neither the rain nor the Pirates could be stopped by the Generals as Putnam City handed Grant a wet 28-0 loss.

Although Putnam City lost two fumbles, the Generals were plagued by three pass interceptions, one which went for the final Pirate touchdown.

Douglass

Although the statistics showed Grant ahead of Douglass two to one, mistakes

by the Generals and big plays by the Trojans enabled Douglass to outscore Grant 27-14.

After topping off a 60-yard drive with a pass from quarterback Greg Rolland to end Steve Reid for the first score of the game, Douglass returned a kickoff 75 yards to even the score 6-6.

Statistic-wise, the second quarter was still all Grant; but a bad snap from center on an attempted punt gave Douglass possession on the General's one-yard line. The mistake resulted in a touchdown for the Trojans. Grant's last lead of the game came just before intermission with a quarterback sneak and two point conversion, which gave the Generals a 14-13 lead.

Capitol Hill

In the early going it seemed as if Capitol Hill would give the Generals a tough time. But after the first Grant touchdown by fullback Ken Flaniken, the Redskins never seriously threatened the Generals in their 32-0 romping of Capitol Hill.

Other scores for Grant came by a five-yard pass from Greg Rolland to end Terry Stanley, and on a 90-yard kickoff return by Jim Hagerman.

In the fourth quarter, running backs Jerry Herrod and Ken Flaniken tallied for the winners on runs of three and seven yards respectively.

Although Ken Flaniken scored only one touchdown, he completely dominated rushing statistics, as he ran 20 times for 176 yards.

Northwest

The Generals, who hadn't been able to upset a better team, but had been beaten by those not as strong, finally showed their merit in their 17-0 upset of Northwest, crushing the Knights' hopes of a Mid-State Conference crown.

The strong Grant defense picked off four interceptions which prevented Northwest from scoring.

As in the past, it was Ken Flaniken's running and Greg Rolland's passing that put the points on the scoreboard. Flaniken scored on a 49-yard jaunt and Rolland tossed for 24 yards to end Randy Burns for the second touchdown. Both tallies came in the first half. In the fourth quarter, Henry Meggs tacked on a 27-yard field goal to end the scoring.

Midwest City

A speedy offense combined with an effective defensive showing allowed Midwest City to tumble the Generals 24-7.

Midwest City scored first, but Grant came back to take a 7-6 lead as Ken Flaniken punched over from the seven.

When Henry Meggs booted through the extra point, the top-ranked Bombers trailed for the first time in the season.

John Marshall

Grant's strong defense rendered the John Marshall Bears scoreless in an evenly matched battle between the Generals and the Bears ending in a 7-0 triumph for U.S. Grant.

The only touchdown came in the second quarter after linebacker Pat Darrow picked off a John Marshall lateral and raced to the Bear's 23-yard line. Then it was Jim Hagerman who put the Generals in the lead on a quarterback sneak.

The rest of the game was spent on keeping the Bears from scoring. This was a task which was made easier after two fumble recoveries by General Jim Ledford. The stiff John Marshall defense prevented any further scoring by the winners.

Southeast

Because of the two previous contests showing Grant's ability to play and beat good teams, a 27-7 victory over Southeast was not unexpected.

Grant's lead was never threatened by the Spartans after quarterback Jim Hagerman and running back Jerry Herrod scored touchdowns in the first quarter.

Henry Meggs opened the scoring in the second half by splitting the uprights, making it 16-7. The Generals added the touchdown on a one yard plunge by Flaniken with nine seconds left to play. Jim Hagerman added the final touch by passing to Randy Burns for the successful two-point conversion.

Tulsa Memorial

A championship team of Tulsa Memorial Chargers outscored the visiting Generals 17-9, cutting Grant's record to five wins and five losses.

The halftime score was 7-3 after Gary Hanshue kicked a 25-yard field goal in the second quarter.

A fumble recovery by Darrell Cartwright allowed the offense to score as Jim Hagerman dove over from the one; third quarter, lead 9-7. But a Charger field goal and touchdown put an end to a General upset.

Northeast

In their last game of the season, U.S. Grant celebrated homecoming by rolling over the Northeast Vikings, 32-0.

From the time the game started until the final gun, the Generals showed no mercy for Northeast. The winners offense gained 253 total yards, while the defense gathered in six interceptions and a fumble.

Robby Woods scored first on a running play covering 55 yards. Henry

Meggs kicked the conversion with two minutes left in the first quarter.

Jerry McEuen set up another Grant touchdown by intercepting a Viking aerial on Northeast's 40. Two minutes later, Woods scored the tally from seven yards out.

The final two scores came on turnovers, as Grant's Brooks Dodd fell on a Northeast fumble in the Viking end zone, and Terry Stanley returned an interception 30 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.

The final 32-0 win over Northeast left the Generals a 6-5 record for the 1971 season.

Tough schedule, injuries cause 3-11-1 season

A tough schedule, added with serious injuries sidelining many from the starting line-up, was to Grant's disadvantage as the General's B team compiled a season record of 3-11-1.

After losing the first three encounters, Grant was able to beat Northeast by the count of 24-6.

Two weeks later, Mustang fell victim to the Generals 22-7, and again later in the year 7-0.

Coaches Craig Miller and Jeff Welborne described the game with Northeast as "the best showing of Grant's ability to beat a fine team." Also, the 14-14 tie with Southeast was said to be one of the highlights of the B-team's 1971 season.

Speech Tourney Placed in Generals' Hands

Practice, planning, organization, concentration and many hours is what was added to many schedules of Grant's speech students while preparing to host a speech tournament.

The tournament included several small towns in addition to the main area high schools. This meant housing and transportation needed by many.

Upon arrival Friday, the students faced registration, proceeded by an opening session where the visitors were welcomed by Grant's orchestra.

General Royalty Honored in Winter Wonderland

Each year the Journalism department sponsors one of the school's most exciting activities—the coronation of the General and His Lady. This year's theme for the Journalism Assembly was "Winter Wonderland".

Mistresses of Ceremonies, Karen Outland and Nikki Whitnah announced the names of winners Charlie Gomez and Sandy Jesseph as the tension subsided and excitement persisted.

Other candidates for General included Kenny Flaniken, Pat Casey, Gene Muse, and Sam Garlow. Candidates for His Lady included Susie Gentry, Nikki Jones, Pam Webb, and Becky Snipes.

Charlie, Sandy chosen as General and His Lady

Chosen by the National Cheerleaders Association to teach at cheerleading clinics this summer, Sandy Jesseph was also chosen as the school's top royalty, the General's Lady.

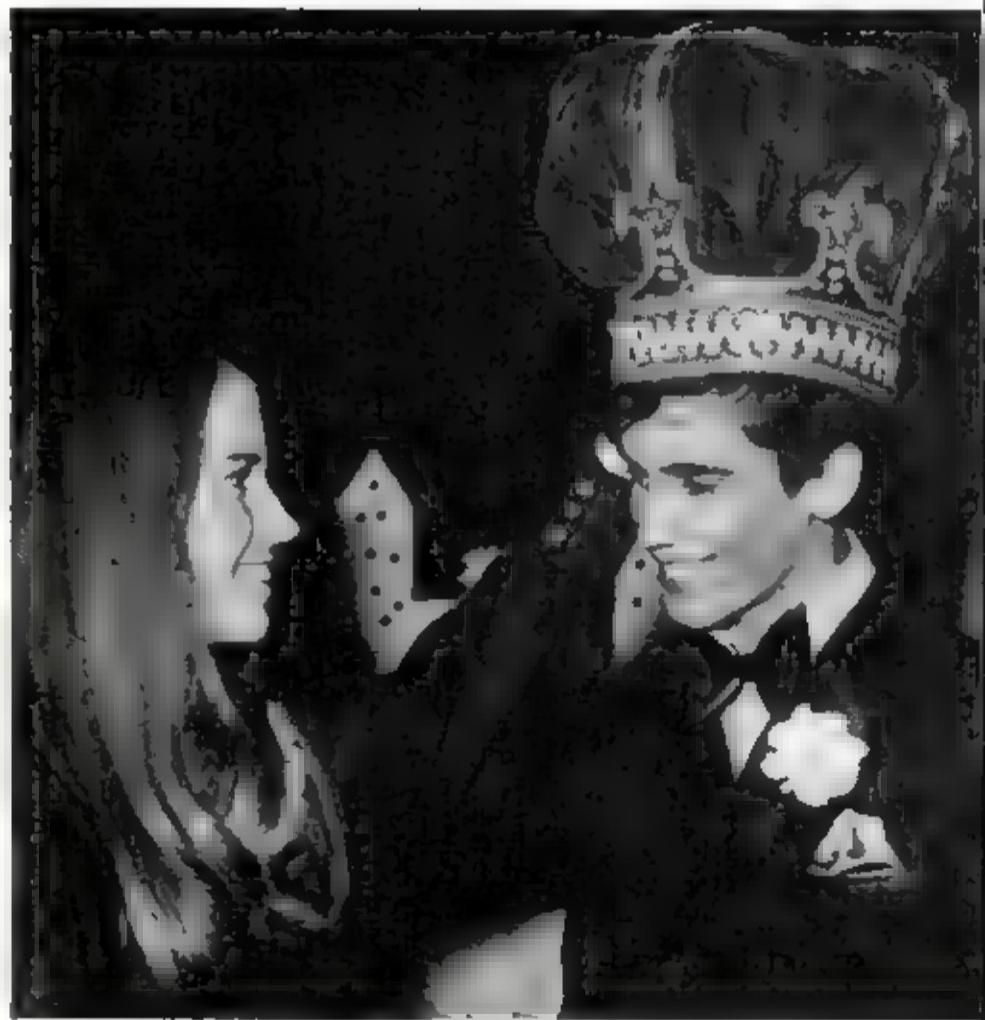

Cheering the teams on to victory, being present at decoration meetings, and attending numerous practices before upcoming games are some of Sandy's many activities.

The honor of being named the 1971-72 "General" was bestowed upon wrestler Charlie Gomez. During his sophomore year, Charlie was fourth in state wrestling. As a junior he became the state champion, and he continued his senior wrestling as city champion.

Pageants, trips emotions shared by Grant students

Escorting the old year out and the new year in found Grant students involved in numerous activities.

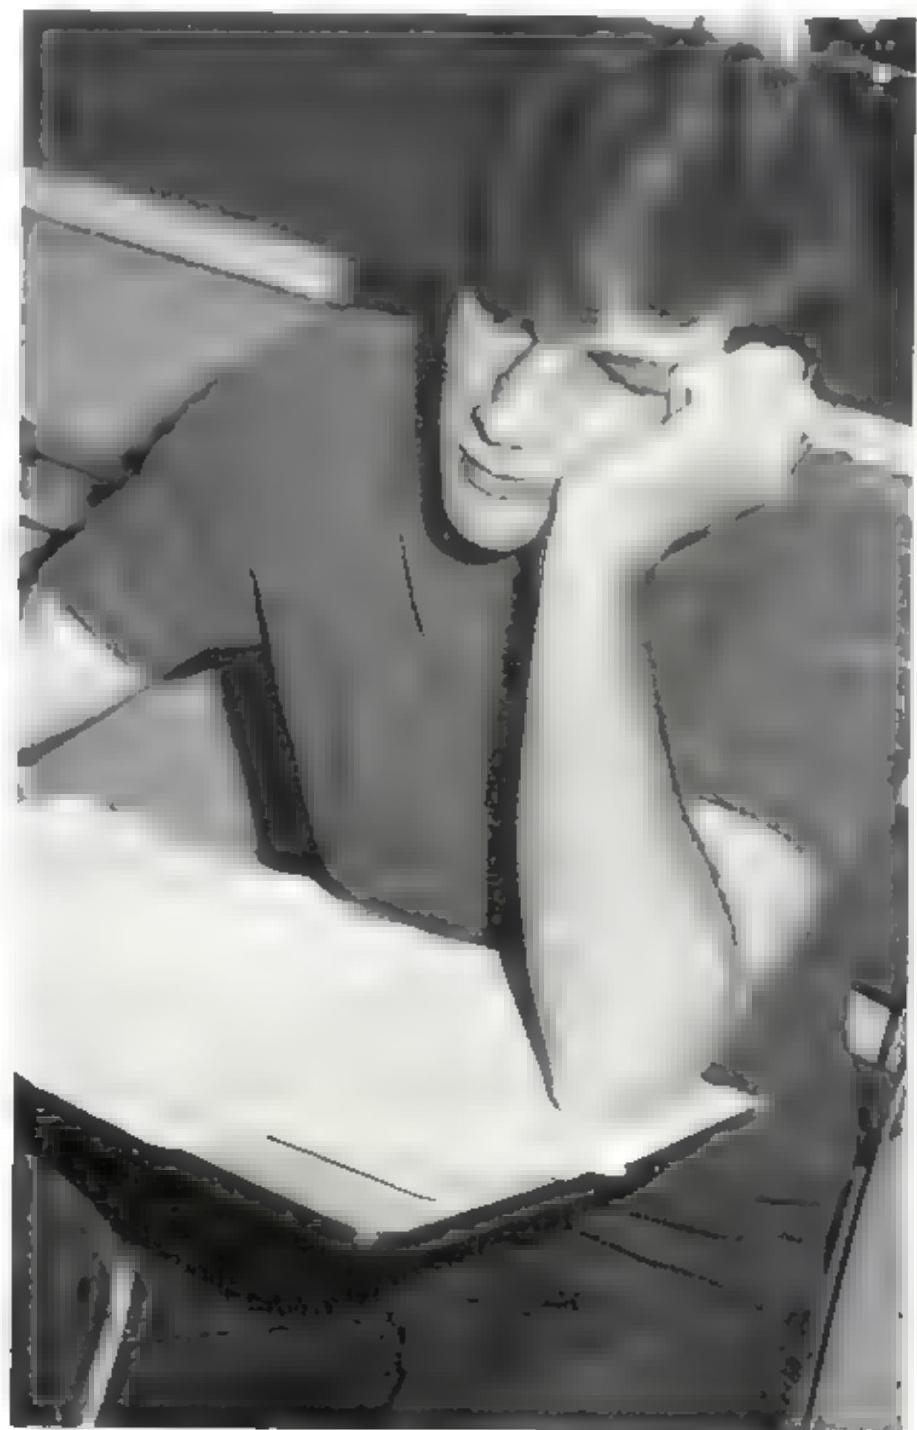

Several students spent the holidays on their favorite slopes, while others stayed home and took advantage of the holidays and the activities they had to offer.

After returning to classes the Seniors ordered their announcements and started to realize how close they really were to graduation.

Generals discover numerous means of involvement

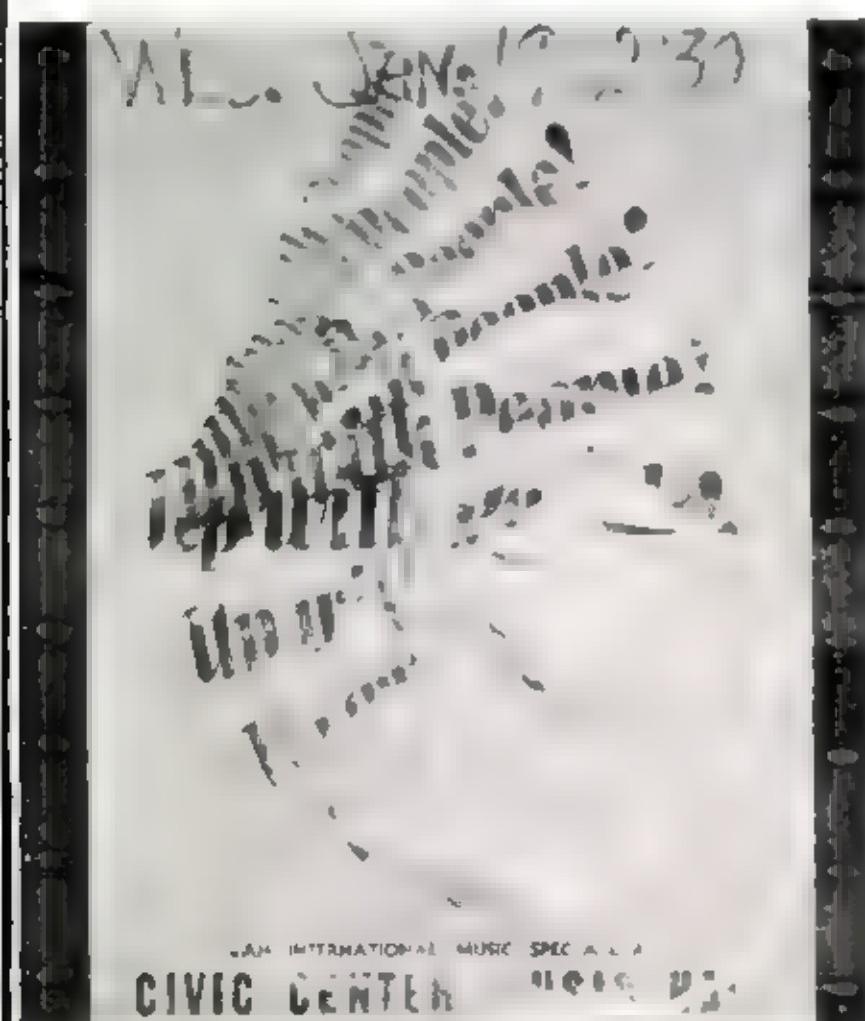

"There's nothing going on," was hard for Generals to say in December and January. To add to the hustle of the holidays, there were basketball games, wrestling matches, club parties and of course semester tests.

Several students campaigned for Keep Our Schools Open, the student Council purchased a new fruit machine and Up With People played a free performance for Grant students.

Juniors' float takes first

Hard work was the key word for Juniors during the 1971-72 year, and the reason for all the work was the prom. Many hours of over-active imaginations and over-worked minds went into its preparation.

Money raising was another word the Juniors heard through the year. Fund raising took up most of the spare time there was. Many were out washing cars on a cold Saturday, and still others went from door to door selling vanilla extract and passing out free Pizza Bucks. The drama department raised money by putting on the play "The Robe."

Class of "74" makes debut at Grant

New faces enter Grant's halls each year and with these new faces come the ideas which bring about changes necessary to the school. Puzzled expressions gradually became self confident smiles as the sophomores learned their way around.

After electing officers and a planning committee, sophomores looked forward to their voice in student leadership.

Though often teased and playfully irritated, upperclassmen realized the future of Grant lie in the sophomores. They were soon accepted by upperclassmen and their new concepts welcomed.

Varsity matmen win eight duals

Norman and Sand Springs

Three falls, two near falls, and an astounding upset led the Norman Tigers to a 30-24 victory over the Grant Generals in their first dual meet of the season. The big upset of the night came when State Champion Charlie Gomez lost to Norman's Tim Jefferies 14-0.

Sand Springs' Sandites, rated No. 1 in 3A, were the Generals' first victim in the 1971-72 wrestling season, 24-22.

Carl Albert and Del City

U.S. Grant used four pins, seven decisions and one forfeit in defeating Carl Albert with an impressive win of 50-3. The General grapplers' four pins were produced by Kirkpatrick at 106, Gomez at 115, Boydston at 141, and Howard at 181.

Del City's Eagles upended a surprised Grant wrestling team in the Generals' home territory, 25-19. Although Grant took six decisions, two pins by the Eagles resulted in the Generals' loss.

All-City

At the All-City wrestling match held at Capitol Hill, Grant's wrestling squad placed third behind John Marshall and Southeast. The Generals crowned three champions during the tourney; they were Charlie Gomez, Jerry Hazlitt and Kevin Fitzgerald.

Southeast

Mark McClain's 4-2 decision over Southeast's Billy Norman gave Grant a narrow 24-23 victory over the Spartans in the Generals' closest contest of the season. After Grant secured wins in the first two weights, the lead seesawed from one team to the other, with Grant on top preceding the final match.

Tulsa Webster and Hale

With the help of two forfeits by Tulsa Webster, Grant's wrestling team edged the Warriors, 30-25, to up their schedule to four wins and two losses. Another leading factor was the pins of Charlie Gomez and Robert Wodraska. Wodraska, at 106, pinned his man with 1:02 left, and Gomez scored at 5:02.

Tulsa Hale's blue and gold Rangers took Grant by surprise in their 25-22 decision over the Generals. Although the Generals won seven out of the twelve matches, Tulsa's three point margin was enough for their win.

Geary Tournament

Charlie Gomez and Mark Fleming were in the winning column for Grant, as the Generals took fourth place in the Geary Tournament. Ahead of Grant were Midwest City, Norman and Moore.

Northwest and Putnam City West

Mark McClain's fall over Putnam City West's Mike Burris in the heavyweight division proved to be the winning match for Grant, as they toppled the Patriots, 27-21.

Although trailing 3-2 in pins, the U.S. Grant grapplers edged by the Northwest Knights with a 27-25 score. The Generals' two pins were captured by Ken Howard and Charlie Gomez.

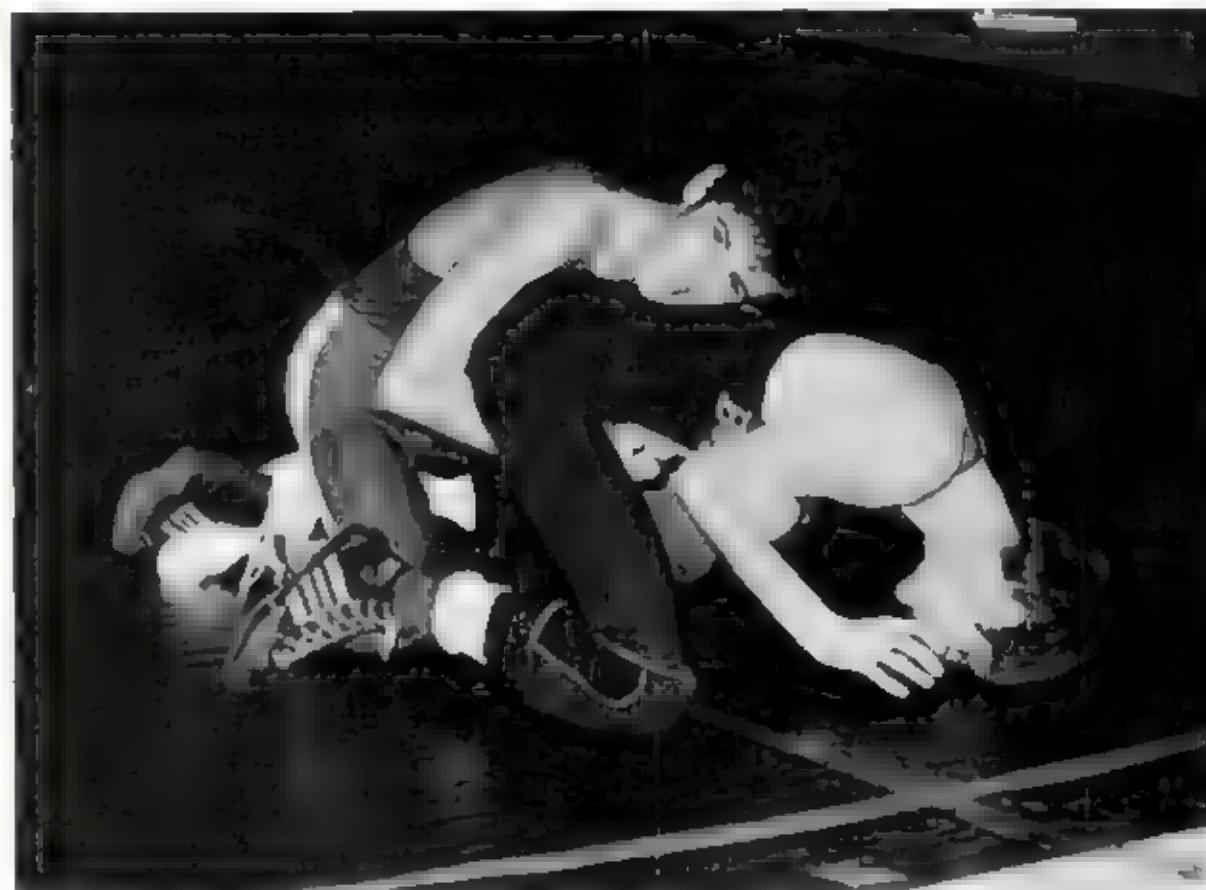

Howard rallied from a 14-3 deficit to tumble Bomber Nick Griffin.

John Marshall

Grant's Generals seemed almost unstoppable as they swept over the John Marshall Bears, 30-16. The win gave the Generals a victorious homecoming.

Mid-State Tournament

U.S. Grant's wrestling squad came out in fourth place at the Mid-State Conference wrestling tournament crowning two champions. Both Charlie Gomez and Kevin Fitzgerald defeated their Putnam City opponents in the finals. Mark Fleming also reached the finals, but lost to Putnam City's Gary Peters.

Moore and Putnam City

The absence of five General starters, who were out of the line-up because of sickness, gave the advantage to the Moore Lions as Grant fell 32-9.

Two falls, by heavyweight Mark McClain and Ken Howard, and six decisions led the Generals to a 30-16 win over the Putnam City matmen. The Pirates could come up with only one fall which was in the 98 lb. bout.

Midwest City

Unbeaten in dual action, the Midwest City Bombers compiled five decisions and two pins to flatten the Generals, 31-15. Even though the Bombers came out on top in the final scoring, two of their then undefeated grapplers fell to Grant's Kevin Fitzgerald and Ken Howard. Fitzgerald scored on David Whiteman, and

Regionals and State

Two Grant wrestlers gained their place in the State wrestling tournament by defeating their opponents. They were Kevin Fitzgerald and Charlie Gomez.

In the State Tournament held at the Fairgrounds Arena, Charlie Gomez successfully defended his State title in the 115 lb. division.

House, Nelson spark hard luck roundballers

Douglas

The Douglass Trojans, ranked high in 4A, rolled past the Generals, 71-66, in the first game of the season. Jon House scored 21 points for the Generals, followed by Ken Nelson with 16.

Southeast

After building up a 35-20 halftime lead on Southeast, the Generals coasted to a 74-47 victory, led by the scoring of Grant's Ken Nelson.

Northwest

A series of 21 free throws in the fourth quarter enabled Northwest to put down Grant, 75-64. Jon House, Ken Nelson and Ken Flaniken played well for the losers as they scored 17, 14, and 13 points respectively.

Putnam City

Powerful Putnam City displayed a good offensive showing as the Pirates outscored the Generals, 85-69. Ken Nelson and Jon House scored 43 points collectively, but were no match for Putnam City's Alvin Adams.

Del City

After building up a 17-12 first quarter lead, the Generals were never to fall behind Del City during the 63-47 routing of the Eagles. Jon House, Ken Nelson and Randy Furt were high-point men for the victors.

Putnam City West Tournament

At the Putnam City West Tournament, Grant's first contest was to be with the favored Edmond Bulldogs. It was a close contest from start to finish with the final decision not coming until the last seconds as Jon House scored four straight points to put the Generals on top, 68-64.

The second match of the tournament proved to be an easier victory for Grant as the Generals came back in the second half to win 61-47 over Putnam City West. A 16 point performance was turned in by Richie Reyes and Ken Flaniken. As a result of this game, Grant proceeded to the finals against Putnam City.

Alvin Adams took over from the start, along with his team mates, as Putnam City handed Grant an 80-46 loss and second place in the Putnam West Tournament.

Del City

After having an ample lead of 23-17 in the first half, the Generals went on to beat the weary Del City Eagles, 72-44. Ken Nelson provided 18 points for the victors along with Ken Flaniken who supplied 13.

Midwest City

In the 55-49 beating of Midwest City, the Generals put themselves into a fourth place tie with the Bombers. Ken Nelson, Jon House and Sammy McElvaney scored in the double figures.

Midwest City Invitational

In the first round of the Midwest City Invitational, the Generals posted a 65-49 victory over the Del City Eagles.

But it was a strong Putnam City team that prevented Grant from winning the needed game, as the Pirates ousted the Generals, 74-41.

It was not until the consolation finals with Norman, that Grant was completely out of the running as they lost to the Tigers, 62-55.

Capitol Hill

Three tournaments were entered by the Generals' B-teamers. They were the Del City, John Marshall and Putnam City Novice Tournaments. They placed 7th, 5th and 4th respectively.

Although the squad's record shows only three wins and seven losses, this doesn't tell the entire story. Experience was the key word for the B-team. Twenty-seven different boys wrestled, gaining valuable knowledge and experience for next year.

Sandy, Donna reign over spring homecomings

Royalty springs up at Grant for all Generals

The Sabrettes chose their Pep Club Buddy, late in March. To be eligible for the honor, he had to be a senior and participated or lettered in a sport one year. The 1971-72 Pep Club Buddy was Darrell Cartwright.

Lerner and Loewe musical production

"My Fair Lady" by Lerner and Loewe was the musical presented by Grant's Fine Arts Department. After weeks of staying at school practically all night for rehearsals, the first performance was staged, the school matinee on February 23.

Some of the highlights of the show were Eliza, singing "I Could Have Danced All Night," Higgins, singing "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face," Higgins, Eliza and Colonel Pickering with "The Rain in Spain," Mr. Doolittle going through "With a Little Bit of Luck," and "On the Street Where You Live," sung by Freddy.

Besides the matinee, on February 24 and 25 night performances were given. The play proved the excellence of U.S. Grant's Fine Arts Dept.

During the John Marshall vs. Grant basketball game, DECA Queen and King were crowned. With the notes of "Summer of '42" floating in the background, Donna Fallwell was crowned Queen by King Kenny Knowles.

A dinner at the Hillcrest Country Club on March 10 was the setting for the crowning of the Thespians royalty. Special awards for club service were also presented at that time.

Seniors find themselves buried in spring activities

Diary of an unknown Senior:

September: "Hey look at the sophomores, I don't remember being that dumb!"

Wasn't it yesterday that the seniors of 1972 stood together with clasped hands at the last football game of the season and sang the Alma Mater? It seems that the junior-senior prom was held last night, but it, too, is fast becoming a part of high school memories.

This senior year was one of mixed feelings. There was the ACT test, the confusion of classes at other schools, and the anticipation of graduation.

The "Class of '72" passed into the beginning of adulthood, leaving in their wake memories that will always linger.

Baseball

Svetgoff paces baseball pitching team

A winning tradition is characteristic of the U.S. Grant Baseball team, not only in the past, but it was quite apparent as the Generals went to bat for the 1972 season.

Ronnie Svetgoff was in his third year of pitching against the conference favorites Midwest City, Putnam City and Northwest.

Players and positions were as follows:
Pitcher: Ron Svetgoff, Lee Schwartz, Bob Sifers, Richie Reyes and Joel McDowell.

Catcher: Randy Pearn and John Kerr

First Base: Ron Svetgoff and Jim Conrad

Second Base: Randy Marcum and Ted Thomas

Third Base: Sammy McElvaney and Larry Lindsey

Outfielders: Kevin Penry, John McDougal, Bob Sifers, Steve Reid, Steve Buchanan, Larry Miller and Steve Chaney
Coach: Mr. Robert Wooden

Golf

Seven starters return for 1972 golf season

An optimistic coach and seven returning starters provided an outstanding outlook for the 1972 U.S. Grant Golf team.

Coach Jack Everhart believed that the team would establish the best record the Generals have had. Although last season's team heralded a 10-3-1 record, people like Charles Clay, Elmer Humphreys, Tony Baker, Tommy Fields and Steve Mann tried to better themselves against tough Mid-State foes Putnam City, John Marshall, Midwest City and Northwest.

Also Kenny Burditt and Greg Epperson played in local matches and Invitations such as the Ft. Worth and Reno Invitations and Mid-State Tournament in April.

Swimming

Swimmers post winning season

Although the US Grant Swimming team had the experience and ability to establish an 8-2 season record, it didn't have the stamina needed to win the bigger meets.

At the All-City Meet, the Generals finished a respectable third place behind swimming powers John Marshall and Northwest.

Then in February, Grant swam to the fifth place spot at the Mid-State Meet only four points behind fourth place Midwest City.

These swimmers participate in the following events:

50 Yd. Freestyle: Ken Black, and Leroy Berry

100 Yd. Freestyle: Phil Halstead and Ken Black

200 Yd. Freestyle: Jay Newell and Terry Welling

400 Yd. Freestyle: Jay Newell and Terry Welling

100 Yd. Butterfly: Bobby Mitchell and Leroy Berry

100 Yd. Backstroke: Jerry Judd and

*"The time has come," the Walrus said
"to talk of many things:
Of shoes—and ships—and sealing wax
Of cabbages—and kings—
And why the sea is boiling hot
And whether pigs have wings . . ."*

Gaining some deep insight or relating a meaningful message has not been the purpose of the 1972 General. Maybe, as editor, I was wrong in not trying to put something of that sort in the book. However, what my staff and I have tried to do, was convey what the 1971-1972 school year was all about. Some of the events that shaped our lives during the school year were definitely left out; events such as President Nixon's trip to China, the implementing of the "Finger Plan," national and state elections, the hopefulness of the winding up of the Viet Nam war, even such close things as gaining a new principal and the innovation of semester English courses. These were only a few of the thousands of daily events that helped shape the school year.

Maybe the quote above, from Lewis Carroll's Through the Looking Glass, gives a better summing up of the year than any editor's note could; it seems appropriate to me.

In closing, I would like to thank our sponsor, Mrs. Mary J. Sparks, Mrs. Lu Curtis, our Taylor representative, our photographer Mr. Joe Hansen, and especially my staff.
